REACHED 2.196 PEOPLE WITH OUR RELIEF EFFORTS AS OF FEBRUARY 2021.

Compassion like yours helps aid hurricane survivors

When hurricanes Helene and Irvette struck just weeks apart, devastating communities in the southeastern United States, support for the people helped move survivors get relief and through World Vision's response.

Communities in Florida, Georgia, the Carolinas, Tennessee, and beyond have been more impacted. In the north, only 10% had their homes severely damaged.

Hurricane Helene and Irvette caused damage to help rebuild the lives.

"We're relying heavily on donations from our donors to help them get back on their feet."

Thanks to your compassion, you've distributed a total of 12 food baskets of aid to the people, and more, following the two hurricanes.

Your Faith In Action

You're making lasting change around the world. Thank you.

REACHED 3.1 MILLION PEOPLE AFFECTED BY THE CRISIS.

Faithfulness of donors like you helps families move from desperation to hope.

When I began my journey, there was shooting everywhere, people killing each other on the road... houses were burning, entire villages were destroyed."

—Fahad

By the time he reached Chad, his family was in a desperate situation. With no money, no food, and no shelter, he knew they needed immediate aid.

In the health clinic, workers held his sick infant as they examined him. The medical staff found many of these infants to be severely malnourished, dehydrated, and in danger of death. But support from friends like you is making a difference, providing life-saving care and resources. Today, Fahad and his family are no longer in critical condition. They are receiving, growing, and thriving with hope for a future full of dignity and joy.

While the crisis continues for many families, the hope is a testament to what's possible when generosity meets need. Thank you for being the hands and feet of Jesus, bringing hope to suffering families like Fahad's.

IN THIS ISSUE:

- Child-friendly Spaces opened in Chad
- Scaling to include 2021's hurricane victims
- Donor's volunteer update
- Zambia farmers build sustainable livelihoods
- And more!

Generosity like yours helps families affected by California wildfires.

A devastating fire burned in Los Angeles, one more able to provide help affected families and their communities.

With support from faithful partners like you, local volunteers, and churches, we deployed food trucks to the front lines to help affected communities.

"We've got food trucks here the day, but..."

World Vision just drove up," says Bill Stone, Director of the Los Angeles Disaster Center. "Matthew continued to love you guys. I think God for you and we couldn't do this without you."

Thanks to your generosity, we've distributed supplies like food, water, clothing, and more in partnership with local churches—helping families through the difficult time.

CREATED IMPROVED SOURCES OF INCOME FOR LIVING ZAMBIAN FARMERS.

Your devotion helps families thrive.

In Zambia, the family of Moko, 14, Shem, 13, and Pendo, 9, were hard in a terrible situation, struggling to make ends meet.

4 generosity from friends like you, and through our income empowerment program, they received a gift of goats—plus guidance to care for the animals and other locally sourced income—which helped them thrive.

Over time, the goats provided milk for nutrition and other things that could be sold, enabling the family to improve their living conditions and achieve financial stability.

You have helped improve the lives of 23,000 farmers in Zambia in 2024. Thank you for being part of this meaningful journey to meet their needs.

You help create lasting change.

Millions of children and their families experienced God's love through your faith and support.

Your compassionate heart has made a difference around the world in 2024, including:

- Providing 104,576 meals to 10,000 children in 100+ countries
- Reaching 14.2 million people with life-saving supplies
- Helping 1.1 million people with relief from natural disasters

Trained families in agriculture, financial, and nutritional skills.

Your kindness uplifts communities.

When families combined with resources and skills, they can improve their quality of life, leading to widespread and sustainable change in children and families.

In collaboration with local communities, we've equipped families with modern agricultural practices and children training to help keep children healthy.

Your generous support reflects Jesus' love for us, bringing hope and encouragement to communities struggling to meet their needs. Thank you for being a blessing of God's grace and caring for vulnerable children and their families.

Pray that suffering 5+ families overcome extreme poverty. Love each other as I have loved you." —John 13:1-13

REACHED OVER 3.2 MILLION PEOPLE AFFECTED BY THE CRISIS IN CHAD.

Blessings like yours help bring joy to children in Chad.

Children in Sudan and many other places around the world are being forced to flee their homes, leaving behind their families and everything they know and love. Many have ended up in neighboring countries that offer few resources, and when their families are separated, they lose everything they know and love.

The transformative impact of your generosity does not end there. Children like Rachida are being helped with more than just Child-Friendly Spaces. They're also receiving access to educational support, clean water, and 10,000 people have been equipped with Mental Health and Psychosocial Support (MHPSS) services. We've also helped families for children who suffer in Chad who are separated from their families.

We are grateful for your compassionate heart for suffering children and their families. Every act of kindness gives a glimpse of hope in the places where it's hardest to see. A child may God bless you for bringing joy to the world around to share His love.

"I got a very good house... before I was sleeping under a shelter. We suffered a lot. We are very grateful. We were living in the wilderness."

—Samuel, Rachida's dad.
